GARY TROTTER

PROJECT MANAGER

DFW Office

Gary Trotter is one of NTG Auburn's Project Managers, bringing 50 years domestic and international E & P experience both onshore and offshore with major, independent and private oil and gas companies. Gary is one of the early pioneers in providing outsourced operations for clients who either did not have the expertise or chose not to use their in-house talent to perform the required work.

RECENT PROJECTS

Projects and Activities for both Sierra Hamilton and NTG Auburn

- Wildcat drilling, coring and testing in Wyoming, Utah and Texas.
- Production management of East Texas Haynesville horizontal wells.
- Expert witness assignments in the Eagleford and Delaware Basins involving H₂S in combination with CO₂ and its effects on wells and facilities.
